Student Agreement

Please read the below contract carefully and sign to complete application.

We certify that the above answers are true and complete the best of our knowledge. We grant East American Education the right to: Start and complete the application process for each school listed in this form, gain access to transcripts and all other documents needed in regards to the application process and on-going throughout the enrollment term, and arrange the host family for the duration of the enrollment period.

We agree that the applicant agrees to abide by the laws of the United States of America, the policies of the school they will attend, and the policies of East America Education (as listed in a separate document). Serious infractions of the rules of these organizations may warrant dismissal from the program, repatriation to home country, and legal prosecution.

We agree that the following expenses are not included in the program fee and are the responsibility of the student and parents: all application fees, school registration fee, school lunch fee, school supplies, extracurricular activities fees (aside from those covered by the miscellaneous fees account), personal spending money, airfare, private tutoring lessons.

We fully understand the financial commitment for enrolling in this program. We have read the guidelines for payment and agree to follow the payment schedule as it is listed. We certify the authenticity of the financial information submitted to EAE and the funding we have provided for the length of the enrollment term.

We have read and agree to the Refunds and Cancellation Policy as it is listed in the documents provided by EAE.

We understand and agree to release East American Education and it's affiliates (staff, agents, etc.) from any liability for any injury, property damage or loss or expense incurred by or at the hands of the student while the student is participating in the East American Education program.

We further agree that EAE is not responsible for any loss or injury suffered by the student during periods of independent travel or absence from the program. EAE shall have no liability, financial or otherwise, for the student when absent from the program or during periods of independent travel.

We have read and understand the Student Rules and Expectations and agree to abide by them for the duration of the program enrollment. We understand the terms in concern to the right for EAE to terminate the student's participation in the program, and that no refunds will be made to a student who has been terminated. We further understand that we will be responsible to arrange and pay for the student's flight should termination occur.

We fully agree that we will not contact the school the student has been enrolled in or the host parents with which the student has been placed in order to make private arrangements for education and housing. We certify that as long as the student remains enrolled with a school by which they have gained acceptance through the services of EAE, we will not undermine the services of EAE by attempting to surpass the use of the agency to work directly with the school or host parents. In the case that we no longer wish to use the services of EAE, we will apply for enrollment at a different school and host family.

We (parents/legal guardians) authorize our child (the student on this application) to travel within the guidelines of the EAE program and the school at which the student is enrolled. We accept full responsibility for our child's participation in any approved travel activities and agree that EAE and its affiliates will not be held liable to any claims financial or otherwise, that may arise out of our child's participation in said activities. We understand that the Travel Release/Authorization signed in this contract is the advance approval of EAE approved travel for the duration of the child's participation in the program, and that no further signatures or consents need to be obtained.

We, the undersigned, have read, understand, and agree to comply with all East American Education terms and conditions.

We, the undersigned, understand that any written or oral agreement between East American Education and the undersigned cannot be modified except in writing by EAE.
